

Echternach 14.08.09

Dear business partner

We would hereby like to inform you that starting September 1st 2009 all business activities and customer relationships with Kom-tron Systemtechnik in Bitburg, Germany have been transferred to Altracon S.A. in Echternach, Luxembourg.

Altracon offers consulting, products, systems, solutions and services in different enterprise areas. Core of our activity is the conversion of innovative ideas in economically successful applications and products, from the analysis of customer requirements to the integration into the process environment and the lifecycle services required to ensure the quality and long term value conservation of the customer investment.

We hope that you will allow Altracon to continue the successful partnership you developed with Kom-tron in the previous years. To guarantee the seamless knowledge transfer between Kom-tron and Altracon we have asked Mr. Ralf Berres to take management responsibility for Altracon Tec and Altracon Service.

If you have any questions or concerns please don't hesitate to contact him directly. He can be reached by phone +352 26 7207 29 or Mobile +49 171 990 269 4 and by email at ralf.berres@altracon.com.

Yours sincerely

Wolfgang Berres
